FUND MANAGER'S REPORT

The Fund fell 11.32% in March 2018, underperforming the benchmark by 0.17%. V.S Industry and United U-LI Corp were the key underperformers for the month. For 2018, the Fund is down 14.65%, underperforming the benchmark by 1.78%.

March was a negative month as the FTSE Small Cap Index fell 11.15% to 14,856.33 points with the rising concerns of escalating US-China trade disputes. Large caps continued to outperform the broader market and small caps.

At the time of writing in early April, mounting US-China trade tensions have unnerved equity markets as evidenced by the global selldown. Is this Trump's posturing for better negotiation power to open markets in China, or is this the start of a trade war which could derail the synchronised global economic recovery trend seen so far? In our opinion, a full-blown trade war will be avoided as it is detrimental to all. Instead, we expect resolution via bilateral negotiations and dialogue on strategic economic sectors. Locally, the election constituency re-delineation exercise has been completed, and the 14th General Elections (GE14) will be held within 60 days from Parliament dissolution on April 7. Our base case is for no major political changes following GE14, and for market to re-focus on earnings delivery and policy continuity, amidst a mainly externally-driven volatile macro environment. However, until we get a firm resolution on the US-China trade war and the final outcome of the GE14, volatility in the equity markets is expected to remain high.

Nevertheless, we remain constructive on Malaysian equities and will look to selectively add to our preferred stocks opportunistically in market corrections. We will stay invested, and continue to like Industrials and Technology. We will also re-look at sectors which have retraced substantially.
