MANAGER'S COMMENTS

The KLCI fell 3.9% MoM to 1,514 points in March 2025, its lowest since February 2024, underperforming the MSCI Emerging Markets Index. It is down 7.8% YTD. Market sentiment turned bearish after President Trump imposed new 25% tariffs on imports from Mexico, Canada, and China. Foreign investors remained net sellers for the sixth straight month, with net outflows rising 110.5% MoM to RM4.6 billion — pushing cumulative outflows since 2010 to a record RM48.5 billion. Only the energy and utilities sectors posted gains in March, while telecom, financials, and healthcare were the worst performers.

The market sell-off has resulted in more attractive valuations, prompting the fund to deploy its existing cash into a mix of value, growth and dividend stocks
