3. (a) What Am I Investing In?

Fund Category	Money market
Fund Type	Income
Base Currency	Ringgit Malaysia (RM)
Distribution	Income, if any, will be distributed monthly.
Financial Year End	30 September
Issuance Date	7 October 2005
Issuance Price	RM0.5000

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

The Fund aims to provide regular income[□] potentially higher than prevailing money market and savings rates, stability of capital and a high level of liquidity.

□ Income is in reference to the Fund's distribution, which could be in the form of cash or units.

INVESTMENT POLICY AND STRATEGY

The Fund will focus on investing in a diversified portfolio of deposits with financial institutions and/or money market instruments with financial institutions to generate regular stream of income that is higher than prevailing money market and savings rates.

Asset Allocation

The Fund will invest at least 90% of its NAV in placements of deposits with financial institutions and/or money market instruments with financial institutions with maturity of no more than 365 days (one year)*. The asset allocation of the Fund in terms of tenure of deposits with financial institutions and/or money market instruments with financial institutions may be reviewed from time to time depending on the Fund's liquidity requirements and to optimise income to the Fund. The Fund does not expect to carry out any temporary defensive measure as the Fund's assets are highly liquid (i.e. deposits and/or money market instruments).

* The Fund may also invest up to 10% of its NAV in placements of deposits with financial institutions and/or money market instruments with financial institutions that are to mature beyond 365 days (one year) but no longer than 732 days (two years).

The Fund's investments will bear a rating of at least P2 for short-term issues (money market instruments), by RAM Rating Services Berhad (RAM) or equivalent ratings by another rating agency. Upon the event of a downgrade of credit rating to below investment grade (P3 and below for short term ratings), the Manager will notify the Trustee of its strategy to rectify the situation, which may involve the nearest opportunity for disposal of the instrument or a scheme of arrangement with the issuer of instrument.

The Fund's combination of deposits and money market instruments is expected to minimise the Fund's exposure to interest rates fluctuations and hence minimise fluctuations in Fund pricing.

Performance Benchmark

Since inception to 30 June 2007	3-Month Kuala Lumpur Interbank Offer Rate (KLIBOR)
1 July 2007 onwards	Maybank Overnight Repo Rate

The benchmark for the Fund is widely used and publicly available from major newspapers on a daily basis. It will also be published as a comparison against the Fund's total return at least on a monthly basis in our publications and on our website.

Effective 1 July 2007, the benchmark Maybank Overnight Repo rate has been adopted for the Fund based on the following rationales:

- It provide a more accurate base of comparison against the Fund's performance; and
- Repo rates provide realistic correlation as to changes in short-term deposit rates whenever there is a change in the Overnight Policy Rate[^].

The Fund comprises the potential of the fixed income securities and money market instruments with tenures of up two years. Compared to an overnight repo placement, this portfolio of investments carry a higher risk, therefore, the Fund is expected to outperform the performance benchmark.

[^] The Overnight Policy Rate (OPR) will be the indicator of the monetary policy stance. The OPR will have a dual role – as a signaling device to indicate the monetary policy stance and as a target rate for the day-to-day liquidity operations of the central bank. Any change in the monetary policy stance would be signalled by a change in the OPR. It will serve as the primary reference rate in determining other market rates.

KEY RISKS

5. What Are The Key Risks Associated With This Product?

SPECIFIC RISK OF THE FUND

- Interest rate risk – This risk refers to the effect of interest rate changes on the market value of a money market portfolio. In the event of rising interest rates, prices of money market instruments will generally decrease and vice versa.

The interest rate is a general indicator that will have an impact on the management of funds regardless of whether it is an Islamic unit trust fund or otherwise.

Note: For the avoidance of doubt, the Fund doesn't seek to invest in fixed income securities.

- Reinvestment risk – This risk refers to the effect of interest rate changes on investment income of the money market portfolio. In the event of declining interest rates, investment income will generally decrease due to lower reinvestment rate. This risk will be mitigated via maturity management of the cash and/or money market portfolio.
 - The Fund will look to increase its average maturity of its deposit placements in an environment of falling interest rates. Longer average maturity decreases the frequency at which cash becomes available and needs to be reinvested.

PRINCIPAL RISKS OF THE FUND

- Credit and default risk – Credit risk relates to the creditworthiness of the Financial Institutions of the money market instruments and deposit and their expected ability to make timely payment of interest and/or principal. Any adverse situations faced by the Financial Institutions may impact the value as well as liquidity of the money market instruments and deposit placements. In the case of rated money market instruments, this may lead to a credit downgrade which will in turn adversely affect the value of the money market instruments. This could adversely affect the value of the fund. Default risk relates to the risk that the Financial Institutions either defaulting on payments or failing to make payments in a timely manner which will in turn adversely affect the value of the money market instruments. This could adversely affect the value of a fund.
- Inflation risk – This is the risk that investors' investment in a fund may not grow or generate income at a rate that keeps pace with inflation. This would reduce investors' purchasing power even though the value of the investment in monetary terms has increased.
- Interest rate risk – This risk refers to the effect of interest rate changes on the market value of a money market portfolio. In the event of rising interest rates, prices of money market instruments will generally decrease and vice versa.
- Liquidity risk – This risk occurs during periods of unexpected high redemption by unit holders. If a fund needs to sell a relatively large amount of fund's existing underlyings, the act itself may depress the value of the Fund due to potential interest loss. As such, a fund is managed in such a way that maturities of cash deposits and money market instruments are adequately diversified across a broad range of tenures to meet potential redemptions without having to resort to early termination of placements that could potentially result in interest losses.
- Manager's risk – This risk refers to the day-to-day management of a fund by the unit trust fund manager which will impact the performance of the fund. For example, investment decisions undertaken by the unit trust fund manager, as a result of an incorrect view of the market or any non-compliance with internal policies, investment mandate, the deed, relevant law or guidelines due to factors such as human error or weaknesses in operational process and systems, may adversely affect the performance of the fund.
- Market risk – This risk refers to the potential losses in the investment of the fund which will impact the fund's NAV, due adverse changes in economic development, political situation and/or other factors.
- Non-compliance risk – This risk refers to the risk that the unit trust fund manager does not adhere to legislation or guidelines that govern the investment management and operations of a fund or to a fund's investment mandate stated in the deed. This risk also concerns non-compliance with internal operating policies and the unit trust fund manager acting fraudulently or in a manner that is unfair to unitholders. This risk could result in disruptions to the operations of a fund and potentially lead to reduced income/gains or even losses to unitholders. The unit trust fund manager has in place stringent internal policies and procedures to ensure a fund is managed to the full benefit of investors and in compliance with the relevant fund regulations or guidelines. There is also separation of fund management duties such as investment decision making, execution of trades and accounting for/valuation of such trades. A compliance team is in place to monitor such operational and investment activities.

The investment manager exercises diligence in minimising the above risks to the Fund. However, it is not always possible to cover all investment risks in spite of best efforts as financial markets can be highly unpredictable. Investors are encouraged to consult their advisers such as financial/tax consultants, lawyers or bankers for a further understanding of these risks.
